PRODUCED WORK

The Minotaur

Theater For The New City — Playwright/Director

In the wake of his defeat by Theseus, The Minotaur arrives in Tartarus bloodstained and vengeful. Holding up a mirror to his tormentors, taking the figures of both family and gods alike, The Minotaur begs the listeners to decide if a monster is born or created.

Part of the TNC Dream Up Festival 2022

The Pantry

Teatro Latea — Playwright/Director

In the worst meet cute of all time, a cannibal kidnaps Charlie to save her meat for the winter - and everything will be fine if she can just keep us laughing.

Part of the NY Fall/Winterfest 2021.

The Vino Theater — Playwright

This adaptation of Dante Alighieri's Inferno asks questions of truth, anger, and birds as a nameless protagonist avoids sleep for nine days in the hope of finding enlightenment.

RICHARD

Staged Zoom Performance — Playwright/Director

Written with excerpts from the late great Pacific Northwestern artist Richard Brautigan, this work leans into the surreal beauty of memory and expression as the mononymous Richard fights through writer's block.

Part of TLRAC Adaptation Festival 2020.
